DIVINE INTERVENTION

comes from the Lineage of the Curanderos, Shamans from Mexico.

This Lineage goes back to the Mayas and Aztecs.

Lineage holder Starr Fuentes describes

as the loudest, most specific prayer that can call the forces of nature and heaven together, hand in hand.

In this moment you hold space between others and creation.

You open the possibility
for disease to leave the body
and healing to happen.
